

SCHOOL BOARD TO GIVE FACTS ABOUT BONDS

At a meeting of the Danville School Board last night at Nelson Park School it was decided to conduct a publicity campaign in order to acquaint the citizens with the plans of the board in regard to the use of the money to be raised from the $350,000 bond issue, if the measure carried at the election to be held June 1924. This date was fixed by Judge D. Price Withers in his call for the election and was confirmed by City Council last night.

A committee of the School Board, composed of Mrs. Rucker Penn, Mrs. A. D. Keen, Dr. I. C. Harrison, C. L. Phillips and W. C. Griess, has been appointed to carry on the campaign for the board. It is also planned to ask the various civic bodies of the city to name a member for each of the six wards of the city to co-operate with the above named committee. The scheme is to eventually have a committee of 36 to fifteen members in each ward, six committees in all, whose duties will be to see that the voters are given such facts as will enable them to vote intelligently upon the issue.

The members of these committees will get in touch with the individual voters and acquaint them with facts of the board's tentative plans the use of its funds. These plans will be further developed and will be presented to the public so that every citizen will be informed as to what will be done with the money to be raised from the bond issue.

The board also took up the question of the election of teachers for the 1923-24 season. Teachers have been elected, but several more days remain for those elected to sign up. The list of teachers will be published as soon as the time limit expires and a full list can be secured.

C. OF C. ENDORSES ENTRY OF U. S. IN WORLD COURT

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 10.—The Chamber of Commerce of the United States, concluding business sessions of its annual convention late today, endorsed entry of this country into the world court, advocated increasing by 2 per cent the immigration quotas, and urged State regulation of public utilities rather than local regulation.

Resolutions also were adopted recommending the calling of a general convention of the nations to discuss the world to adjust peace and economic problems, opposing government operation or ownership of the merchant marine, advocating legislation to govern flight of aircraft and airways to stimulate commercial aviation, the establishment of a court of tax appeals, government reclamation of waste lands, steps to prevent national loss by adequate flood control and reentering its adherence to the open shop policy.

The action was taken before an address by Mr. Robert Masson, of Paris, director general of the Credit Lyonnais, who said the mission of the Franco-Belgian armies in the Ruhr was that of a sheriff to collect debts. He declared that France's military expenditures for 1923 were less than those of 1913 and that the per capita tax on citizens was equivalent to $34, as compared with $27 in America. French government, he said, was taking steps to wipe out its indebtedness in 11 years by "steady, slow and prudent deflation."

The chamber today elected directors without opposition. They include: Third district, John W. Arrington, Greenville, S. C.; fifth district, Vernon S. Tupper, Nashville, Tenn. Natural resources production, Milton E. Marouse, Richmond, Va.

CAP GRAHAM IS INDICTED

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, May 10.—Federal indictments charging Captain Mark Allen Graham and William B. Ehler with defrauding Mrs. Edith Lewis Tyler, a young New York society woman out of $3,000, and conniving with the purchase price of an interest in the 127 foot yacht Maspeth II, recently wrecked off the coast of North Carolina, were disclosed today following the arrest here of Ehler. Captain Graham was arrested at New Bern, N. C. several days ago. The yacht which he had taken south with a party of prominent Bostonians on board, had gone ashore at Beaufort. He declared that Federal authorities who had met Captain Graham at a dance and that after some conversation about Maspeth II, she had agreed to go into partnership with him for $3,000 and that he turned her check over to Ehler with his own check for $3,000 which she later learned was worthless.

A short time later Captain Graham chartered the Maspeth II to the Boston party and set sail with them. She learned of it after the yacht had been wrecked.

The government took the case up because the deal was concluded in the customs house, which is federal territory.

MANEUVER OF FLEET TO BE AT NEWPORT NEWS

NEWPORT NEWS, Va., May 10.—Hampton Roads will be the base for the Atlantic coast scouting division of the United States Fleet next October when that organization holds its annual drill maneuvers according to advice just received from Washington. Some opposition to the plan, however, in this plan, being understood that Vice Admiral McDonald in command of the fleet, favored Fort Monmouth as the base and had so ordered. The schedule had actually been printed for distribution but the Yorktown selection met with such disapproval from naval officers of the fleet, many of whom deluged the Navy Department with letters, that the plan was changed and the approval scheduled has Hampton Roads as a base of operation.

Vice Admiral Newton A. McCully will be in command of the scouting fleet.

HOME REMEDIES OF OUR ANCESTORS

Almost every man and woman in America can remember the home remedies of our mothers and grandmothers for the treatment of disease, and they were wonderfully dependable too. Every fall there were stored away in the attic thoroughbred, penicillin, castor oil, sage, wormwood, rue, etc., for treating the ills of the family during the winter months that followed. In 1873, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was first prepared from one of the best of the remedies of our ancestors, and the demand for it has increased to such an extent that hundreds of tons of roots and herbs are now used annually in its preparation. It has recently been proved that 88 out of every 100 women who try it have been benefited by its use, which is a marvelous record for any medicine to hold.—adv.

Grim Reaper Camps On Trail Of Enquiry In Harsell's Murder

BRISTOL, May 11.—Sparing neither prosecutor nor defendant, death in the space of two years has succeeded in almost completely eliminating principal figures in the celebrated Harsell case. With five of the leading characters in the tragedy in their graves or unaccounted for, it now appears unlikely that the mystery surrounding the disappearance of Blaise L. Harsell, near here, will ever be solved. A chain of five deaths, all of great importance to the case, has served to give a touch of negativity to plans for further investigations.

Blaise L. Harsell, of New Bedford, N. Y., naturalist, writer and clubman, disappeared in the mountains of this section a little more than two years ago. More than a year spent in investigating his disappearance led to the conclusion that he was taken for a moonshiner and slain in the Pigeon Roost section of Mitchell county, N. C., a section famed for lawlessness and a countless number of moonshine stills.

It is heard from at Roanoke. Harsell came to Roanoke, Va., remained there two days and took a train for a point near Bristol, from whence he had planned to begin a journey afoot through the hills with Jasper, Ga., as his destination. He had made arrangements to accompany an expedition to South America the following summer and the journey through the mountains was partly to condition himself for the trip southward later. Relatives of Harsell heard from him direct the last time while he was in Roanoke. The clubman carried a light camping outfit, rifle and pistol.

When Harsell had been missing for six months his relatives became uneasy and his brother, Norman Harsell, of New York city, later came here to begin an investigation. Elmo W. Brimm, detective of Galax, Va., mountain-born and familiar with every range in this section, was engaged to aid in the quest. Bristol was made headquarters. Norman Harsell remained here and Brimm began an inquiry that carried him more than 300 miles through the mountains. In Mitchell county, N. C., not far from here, Brim was given valuable assistance by Sheriff J. L. Pritchard, who took a great interest in the case.

Pritchard and Brimm scoured the hills of Mitchell county in the hope

NOW WE KNOW WHY PEOPLE HAVE Sore Feet

All in the Joints Says Maine Doctor

"What fools we mortals be. All these years we have been trying to help thousands of footsore people by bathing and powdering the skin when all the time the real trouble is in the bones, ligaments and maritages."

Or to be short, in the joints. There are 26 bones in the foot covered with cartilage and connected with ligaments and they have a tremendous amount of work to do.

The slightest strain on one little ligament from being on the foot, causing soreness and burning, aching and general misery.

"All this can be quickly proved," says a prominent Maine doctor whose name is known the world over.

Just try a remedy that is compounded for joint troubles only—such as Joint Ease which every druggist carries, and see how quickly your sore, tired, inflamed and tortured feet will get well and strong and sturdy again.

Forget your powdering and soaking and other makeshifts for just a few days and get rid of all foot misery by using Joint-Ease.

It's a stainless preparation that you rub on your fingers for about a minute and it soaks right in through the skin and flows away down to the joints—the real seat of all trouble.

And remember when Joint-Ease goes in all foot agony goes out—A tube for 60 cents—Every drug store—adv.

Next!

Ladies, the line forms to the right for prospective brides of the Prince of Wales. Every boat from England carries a photo of some prince or princess. This, the latest, is the Hon. Yvonne Rosamond Gage, 29, sister of Viscount Gage.

The case aroused nationwide attention and Norman Harsell received many letters from far-off states in which sympathy and hope was expressed.

Norman Harsell left for his home in the east convinced that Blim Rainwater held the information he sought. "Rainwater did not shoot my brother, he knows who did," said Norman Harsell, the day he left Bristol after giving up all hope of ever finding his brother alive or dead.

There is still a remote possibility that Blaise Harsell may be alive but there are few or any who adhere to this theory. The general opinion is that he fell a victim to the savage resentment of a moonshiner. The question is who and where is that moonshiner?

The end of the Register-Bee campaign is rapidly drawing to a close. Very little time is left in which to gather the winning votes.

Candidates will have to hurry and get in every subscription possible before the close of the last big vote period—before the lowest vote senedule of the campaign goes in effect.

Now is the time to show just what you can do the time for your supreme efforts.

Danville Dogs Have Wide Range Of Names

The canine population of Danville probably boasts of as unique a set of names as can be found anywhere in the county. Nobody has a better opportunity of keeping up with Danville's hosts of dogs than City Treasurer George P. Geoghegan who receives taxes for them and who is required, in filling out certificates, to enquire the name of the animal on which tax is paid. Mr. Geoghegan is a lover of nature and animals and not a few of the names with which he has lodged in his memory. Besides a large quota of "Baby Dogs" and "Trixie" pre-Volstead recollections are conjured up by the number of "Tipsey" dogs which are to be found in several quarters of the city. There are lots of "Woodrows" while "Toodles" and "Tumpsie" are becoming more and more fashionable. "Money" is quite scarce but there are a lot of "Sweet-things" hovering about the streets judging from the canine records.

Some of the names which are to be found include the following. Koontze, King Cole, Civileg, Specks, Snooks, Jiggs, Mutt, Scoop, Bif, Smutz, Yip, Big Boy, Shimmey, Ten Cents, Thing Dakey, Thing, Five Cents, Uno, Freddie, Funk Music and Shag.

Last year about 600 dogs were tax paid in the city. Thus far this year taxes have been paid on approximately 400 animals.

Georgia Tech To Compete In Relay Events At Phila.

By LAWRENCE PERRY.
(Copyright, 1928, by The Bee.)
NEW YORK, May 11.—Plans are on foot to be learned today, to put the south on the track and field, as firmly and brilliantly as football, has been so placed in the land of Dixie. The situation has grown out of the unqualified success of the first annual Southern relay meet held on Grant Field (Georgia Tech's arena) in Atlanta two weeks ago. William A. Alexander, of Tech, whom in large measure the success of this meet was due, is planning for the future in such manner that outstanding southern college teams will be able to go to Philadelphia to participate in the Pennsylvania relays. In other words the second relay meet at Atlanta will be held early in April and through this it is hoped not only that teams from the southland can go north but that some of the colleges in the east and perhaps the middle west will take notice of the opportunity of getting a week of Georgia sunshine early in the outdoor season.
Vanderbilt who is track, as well as football coach at Tech is a far-seeing man. He realizes fully what the scheme of relay racing has meant to college athletes and now he is engaged in carrying the message throughout the country. The writer ventures to predict that by another year he will be able to reap the rich harvest of his efforts and those who are associated with him.
So far as that goes the recent relay event was an extraordinary success. Athletes representing 29 Dixie schools and colleges were entered and the meet attracted the keenest interest throughout the South. As an incident out of what the southern colleges are doing in track it might be recorded that in winning the one mile relay event Mississippi A and M turned in three minutes 25.3-10 seconds whereas the record is 3 minutes 15.2-5 seconds. And so the seconds were throughout. Excellent, encouraging, thrilling the message throughout the country. The writer ventures to predict that by another year he will be able to reap the rich harvest of his efforts and those who are associated with him.

Quimet Is Still In Golf Running For British Cup

(By The Associated Press.)
DEAL, England, May 10.—Through sunshine, rain and blustering winds Francis Quimet, former American amateur open golf champion, today had a battle with the wind before the semi-finals in the British amateur championship tournament.
Two of Quimet's American colleagues were eliminated the morning after this afternoon, so tonight Quimet alone of the fourteen Americans who came across the ocean to try the championship struggle re-enters the running today were Dr. O. F. Willing, of Portland, Ore.; George V. Retan, of Houston, Texas; and John F. Neville, of San Francisco. Quimet is not the sole representative of American golf still surviving in the running today. Douglas Grant, who won his title today is a citizen of England, but a resident of England.
Tomorrow morning the eight players in the running, two Americans, two Scotchmen and four Englishmen, will play the sixth round. In the afternoon those who triumph over the 18 holes of the morning will meet in the semi-finals. Grant will be the lower half of the draw and Quimet will be the upper half. There is possibility, though seemingly not very strong one, that the two Americans will fight it out in the final Saturday.
Edward Drew against Horrold, and Douglas Grant against Cyril Humphries, and W. Willis MacKenzie against Robert Harris.
Quimet had two very hard battles today. He had to go to the home hole in both of them before winning. In the forenoon Jack Neville, the California champion, clung to him like the proverbial barancho and in the afternoon a cool, experienced Englishman, C. Bretherton, not only staunchly challenged Quimet's right to remain in the running but for a time made a sound threat to put him out. Bretherton had Quimet down at the sixth hole, and the slender Rossonian had to battle bravely and well to overcome this lead. The Englishman aided Quimet's uphill struggle by getting rather badly off his own game on those deciding holes between the turn and the finish.

Hopes Navy Will Enter In Regatta At Poughkeepsie

BY LAWRENCE PERRY.
NEW YORK, May 11.—Many rowing enthusiasts feel that the Naval Academy authorities would indeed show a fine sporting spirit were they to enter their crew in the Poughkeepsie regatta. But they believe that an even finer spirit would be shown before evidence was in hand that the combination stood an excellent chance of winning on the Hudson. It will be recalled that before the present rowing season began, when the Navy curriculum is elastic as regards rowing, the chances of victory are good.
But there is the Navy viewpoint to be considered. The Navy is not a member of the Intercollegiate Rowing Association and has no obligation to send a crew to the Hudson every year. And there is not the slightest reason why the Academy's athletic association should be put to the expense of sending a poor or mediocre eight to Poughkeepsie. As a matter of fact the Poughkeepsie Stewards are always ready to welcome to the regatta a crew whose demonstrated ability would add prestige to the great regatta. It is a feature and would not enhance to any noticeable degree over the entrance of a combination that looked to be beaten before it started.
For reasons unknown John Thomas, Chicago University's All-American halfback, has dropped his course of studies at the Midway institution. Whether or not he will return in time to enter college next September is not known. But every Chicago footer hopes he will turn up ready for study—and, incidentally for football next fall.
Princeton men will recall Thomas without effort. In the Tiger-Chicago game at Starg, field last year Thomas drove the Tigers to a narrow line for three touchdowns. It was as mighty an exhibition of line bucking as modern football has known. In some quarters, shallow thinking persons were inclined to withdraw support from Thomas because he was not a great scoring factor. Perhaps they did not realize that in that sanguinary contest against Princeton John Thomas gave a whole season of nerve, energy, self sacrifice and endurance.
Spring football practice at Notre Dame has unearthed at least one coming back star. He is Tommy Farrell, of Newark, N. J., who played a great game on the St. Benedict Preparatory school eleven. Out at South Bend he ran hog-wild through all opposition.
Looking over Princeton's line in the Spring practice recently ended, one wondered whether or not a Big Bertha shell had exploded beneath that 1928 forward wall. Alford, Pink Baker, Dickenson, Treat, Homay, Thomson—all gone. And no one, apparently, to take their places.

"DANVILLE'S BEST STORE."

Danville buddies are expected to be out in force tomorrow night at the Municipal Hall where Joe Turner, middleweight wrestling champion of Washington will meet Fritz Hansen who a few days ago gave an exhibition here. The fight is expected to begin at about half past eight o'clock following some interesting preliminaries. The bout is being staged under the auspices of the American Legion and it probably will be the last big bout of the season—that is unless someone is able to match a stranger with another grapple of note as a July Fourth event.

Judge Turner Clement while presiding at the special term of court in Martinsville a few days ago ordered sold at auction nine automobiles found transporting liquor. These cars had been seized by law enforcement officers since the last regular session of court.

A number of Danville tobacco men and others well known here in trade are in Europe at the present time on business trips. A. B. Carlington, Jr., is at present abroad with Gordon Tuggle. Crews Wooding is also in London on a business mission. Others abroad include Weldon Lee of South Boston, W. T. Clark, of Wilson, N. C., and R. C. Harrison, formerly of Danville but now holding a responsible position with one of the big tobacco companies in New York.

Eighty-five of the 152 offices in the Masonic Temple are now occupied according to Stanley Cunningham, secretary of the Masonic Building Corporation. A good many other offices are under lease but have not been yet occupied. The dining hall and auditorium have been in keen demand and they are already proving a source of revenue to the corporation. The auditorium especially is being used almost nightly for dances and for entertainments. Administering fully to the needs of the tenants is no small task and the operating force in the building now numbers ten. In addition to the elevator boys and the nightwatchman who is on duty throughout the night there are three janitors and several women employed at night and early in the morning scrubbing floors and keeping the building clean. By the time the building has been thoroughly cleaned it is estimated that 2,000 pounds of soap will have been used. The heating plant during the recent cold weather has given satisfaction. In mid-winter the two boilers which supply steam for radiation are expected to consume not over 200 tons of coal each month.

The commissioners of revenue of the Fifth district are to meet in Danville next Wednesday at eleven o'clock for the purpose of hearing a number of addresses by state tax experts. About thirty commissioners of the revenue are expected in Danville and it is planned to hold the meeting in the city council chamber. J. Vaughan Geary of the attorney general's office and William R. Parr, chief clerk to the auditor, are expected to be here.

The council last night adopted two ordinances governing situations arising at the time of fire. One of them empowers Fire Chief Lewis Mitchell to draw a fire line and to bar from entry all persons not authorized to enter the fire zone. The chief henceforth will have the right to point out to the police where he wants the fire line drawn and persons who venture beyond it will be amenable to the police court. The other ordinance forbids motorists driving over lines of fire hose.

Rev. R. Armistead Welbourn, Episcopal church missionary stationed for several years in Tokyo, Japan, is here on a visit to his cousin, Mrs. E. W. Armistead, on Jefferson street. Rev. Mr. Welbourn who lived in Baltimore before entering the distant missionary field is on his first visit home for a number of years. He will preach at the evening service Sunday at the Epiphany church.

Radio enthusiasts who had hoped to hear President Harding make his scheduled address at the South commemoration meeting in New York last night were disappointed when they learned that the president, by reason of the pressure of public business had been unable to fulfill the engagement. The WJZ station at Newark, one of the best in the country will close down next Tuesday and will move to the top of Aeolian Hall in New York where the station will be known as "Broadcast Central." This will be one of the most up-to-date stations in the world and will be so completely equipped that two programmes on different wave lengths will be possible for transmission at the same time.

Hitch Develops

In Release Of Men Held By Bandits

(By The Associated Press) PEKING, May 10.—Hitch has developed in negotiations for the release of the captives held by the Suichow bandits in their hill strongholds back of Lincheng, according to a report carried today by the Asiatic News Agency, a Chinese news organization.

The news agency declared that the government's hasty acceptance of the bandits preliminary demands that the pursuing troops be called off has made the brigands skeptical of official sincerity and has led to fear that Peking is laying a trap for them. Wu Luh-Lin, minister of communications, the agency says, has telegraphed General Tien Chung-Yu, governor of Shantung, informing him of the indignation of the foreign legations at the Suichow outrage and of the demands made by the foreign diplomats on the Peking government. Wu added that the Chinese government would be held responsible for the safety of the foreigners kidnapped and promised the Shantung governor any financial assistance necessary in event the bandits required a heavy ransom.

The best available information indicates that only one woman is held by the Suichow bandits. Senora Vera, wife of Manuel Vera, of Guadalajara, Mexico, also is a captive. She refused to leave her husband, although offered her liberty, according to reports.

Through traffic has been re-established between here and Shanghai on tracks laid around the wooded ridge of way torn up by the bandits who raided the Shanghai-Peking Express Sunday morning. No trains are run through the bandit-infested region at night.

Details have filtered through circles of a dramatic scene enacted two days ago, when J. B. De Freitas, Portuguese minister, who is dean of the diplomatic corps, stalked into a meeting of the Chinese cabinet and, refusing a proffered chair, insisted on the heads of the Chinese government rising to their feet while they heard his ultimatum.

M. De Freitas then gave the Chinese three days of grace in which to effect the release of the captives held by the Suichow bandits, after which, he declared, the foreign representatives would add penalties and indemnities for each day added to the period of captivity.

NERVE EXPLOSIONS

Do you ever get up in the morning

"out of the wrong side of bed" and find everything goes wrong during the day? Buttons come off. Shoes break. Breakfast toast is scorched. The street car is late and packed to the doors when it does come, so there's no seat for you.

As the day progresses, it seems that there's a conspiracy afoot to make you miserable. All the trans-porters and half-wits in the world manage to get in your way.

The flux follows. Fingers are clumpy, refuse to obey your brain readily, and you break things from dishes to pencil leads.

The mailman apparently has joined the conspiracy. He brings the wrong kind of letters—disappointments, bills.

Everything is out of sorts. Like the Irish soldier, you decide "everybody's out of step but me."

Most of us have enough of the superstitious lurking in our brains to make us believe that bad luck is shadowing us on the days when everything goes wrong.

The simple truth is, our nerves are on edge, probably due to something we ate the day before, or to our blood pressure being too low or too high.

Life at such times seems more aggravating than usual. But the trouble is in ourselves, not in life or the people we encounter. They average about the same, day in and day out.

For instance: We saw a man rush into an office building. As he went through the revolving door, he decided that the party in front of him was a slow-moving moron, so he swung the door viciously in an obvious attempt to knock down the stranger in his path. Nerves. Meeting the same stranger under similar circumstances next day, the man (if feeling normal) probably would trail

the stranger placidly through the door and maybe pause to borrow a match and exchange the time of day and home brew recipes.

There is nothing quite as cranky as a cranky or other dope fiend recovering from a debauch, with nerves on edge—a hangover. All of us at times feel the same way, without any preliminary debauch.

We have simply lost control of our nerve force. The pipes are leaking, eager to explode.

What can we do about it? Well, for one thing, we can keep ourselves under control by a determination to maintain a placid and easy-going state of mind. Ruminations of the whole day dates from the first yielding to anger when the button comes off as we start to dress. The more we yield, the more we allow ourselves to become irritated, the higher the pressure mounts in our internal mechanism.

A good motto, when nerves are on edge, is: "Oh, well, nothing new today, a new day is coming." A hundred years from now, what difference will it make?

THE OLD HOME TOWN

Tells How True Military Renown Is Now Obtained

(By The Associated Press)

NEW BERN, N. C., May 10.—True

military renown is not obtained by foreign conquest, but it has been in defense of the soil and liberties of people, when threatened by an overwhelming and invading foe, that its brilliant and most glorious honors have been achieved. A. W. McLean,

Lumberton, formerly a member of the United States War Finance Corporation, declared in his Confederate Memorial address here today.

Mr. McLean spoke on the life and character of Robert E. Lee, and paid a high tribute to the Confederate general.

"To us of the Southland," he stated, "Lee's name suggests more than that of a popular hero; he was the embodiment of a cause. He exemplified the spirit of our race, because he symbolized the character of a people. In a word, because he is our ideal and mine, I have chosen him as the subject of my address today.

"One hundred and fifteen years ago

at Stratford Farm, Westmoreland county, Virginia, there was born to

Henry Lee and his wife, Anne Millner, a son. His father was the in-imate friend of George Washington and one of his most famous generals whose name has been handed down to us under the affectionate soubriquet, 'Light Horse Harry.' He sprang from a race of military men, tracing his descent from that Lancelot Lee, who so distinguished himself with

William the Conqueror at the Battle of Hastings.

"It was, therefore, not unnatural that young Robert Edward, career of a soldier."

After reviewing the boyhood days of Lee, Mr. McLean cited various authorities on the military ability of the famous southern general.

"We need not appeal to the frankly partial southern people for evidence of the military ability of General Lee," he asserted. "Go rather to the impartial critics of the world, he was a great soldier. I can repeat

Bulgaria Lost War, But Enjoys Best Conditions in Balkans

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS

(Special to The Bee.)

SOFIA, May 11.—Czar Boris III is the luckiest king in Europe. He knows just where he stands with regard to war settlements, being the one and only ruler in this terribly stricken corner of the globe who does.

Bulgaria, let off lightly by the Reparations Commission for her part in the World War, is today in the best position of any country in Europe so far as getting back on her feet is concerned.

If she plays her cards right she will be on easy street in a short time, and on velvet in fifty more. Bulgaria is the one country I have not yet visited—and I have studied conditions in seven continental nations before coming here—where there is a bit of hope in the air.

For the others, even for the victorious powers, there is nothing ahead as far as the mind's eye can travel; save debts, debts, and more debts.

From 2,250,000,000 gold francs by way of reparations demanded of her by the allies, Bulgaria has been left with only 500,000,000. And that is to pay for her share of the cost of the war. Bulgaria has a population of 7,000,000, annually, where they will pay the remainder of the time.

Bulgaria could not pay the two and a quarter billions. She can pay the lesser sum. Particularly as the payments are made for the present. But, nevertheless, she is beginning to feel the pinch. Prices are still on a 175 per cent. basis, and the amount they receive is constantly dwindling.

The Reparations Commission has not wiped out the 2,250,000,000 gold franc claim against Bulgaria. After the 40 years have passed, or in case of a default, a refund of $23.84 in taxes was allowed to the colored Odd Fellows on the recommendation of the city attorney, and the committee was authorized to employ a clerk of the juvenile court at a salary of $125 a month. The council definitely approved the bond issue election date June 19th when the voters will decide the $350,000 school improvement bond project also an issue of $50,000 for sewer extension.

The ordinance providing for the issuance of $10,000 council sewer bonds was ordered to be overruled by the council providing for $100,000 water bond ordinance which was presented at an earlier meeting was adopted. An amendment to the franchise of the Danville Traction and Power franchise was presented by the public works committee last night, this increasing the speed of street cars from 15 miles to 20 miles an hour. The traction company requested the change in order to speed up the schedule of car service. Desiring a customer, it revealed some opposition to the plan and W. E. Gardner for one questioned the advisability of permitting the cars from proceeding more rapidly than they do now.

The cemetery question, which has been a subject of cross debate at several meetings was raised once more last night. F. W. Townes, chairman of the committee, still adheres to his minority report urging the purchase of the 40 acre Chastelaine tract for $14,000. A majority report of the committee now urges purchase of the so-called Pagan property which contains 128 acres and which can be purchased for $28,000. This property is one mile beyond the north side turn-in of the street car company and is on the Chatham road. No action was taken last night, since it was the first time this property had been recommended it was ordered to be overruled. The charge for opening graves in the local cemeteries was increased last night. For many years the cost of this operation has been from $3 to $7 at which figures the work has been done at a loss. Under the terms of the new ordinance passed last night a

Americans here, particularly the officials who live on a fixed and rather small dollar income, are beginning to feel the pinch. Prices are still on a 175 per cent. basis, and the amount they receive is constantly dwindling.

Bulgaria backs down at any time on her bargain, the commission reserves the right to demand the original sum. In short, the commission holds the larger claim as a club over Bulgaria's head.

Bulgaria's trade about balances, even now. She exports considerable tobacco, wheat, maize, hides, barley, attar of roses, etc., and her import needs are very simple. Her population is 80 per cent. peasant and they make their own clothes to a large extent to home-grown wool, while they raise pretty much all they eat. The balance should be largely in her favor soon.

Czar Boris' prime minister, Alexander Stambulski, is of peasant stock and is a self-educated man of tremendous force. His "different" ways of going after what he wants has won him the respect if not a certain measure of friendship with Yugoslavia and Rumania. Stambulski's fight has been uphill. Bulgaria is still at outs with Greece over Thrace.

With communists forming the second largest party in Bulgaria, and with radicals, democrats, socialists and others outside the agrarian or Stambulski party, he has only a bare working majority in parliament. His putting over the reparations settlement, however, will strengthen him. Czar—or King—Boris is popular with the people because he is the only monarch left in the world who does not interfere with the government and so gets along swimmingly. He lets Stambulski, the bull-like premier, run the show.

If left alone, Bulgaria will stay put for some time. But in case of another European upheaval, Bulgaria could not doubt join in. For she, like the rest of the central powers, is not entirely reconciled to her new frontiers.

fee of $15 will be charged for vaulting graves; other prices ranging from $8 to $10. These recommendations were made by the city engineer.

The public works committee introduced an ordinance prohibiting the parking of automobiles on Lover's Main street in order to relieve congestion at that point.

The increased cost of street paving furnished a subject for discussion. The seven street improvement projects include Bellevue, Henry, Spring, Marshall streets and Westmoreland Court. The lowest bid recently submitted is considerably more than the estimated allowance and were the work to be carried out on the lowest bid it would mean a substantial encroachment on the contingent fund. Councilman Gardner expressed unwillingness to commit himself to the whole project and moved that Spring street be eliminated, this curtailing more than $5,000. Councilman Harrison suggested that Bellevue, Spring and Henry streets be eliminated and that only work be done on the other three streets the owner of the property paying two-thirds and the city one-third in carrying the street work generally. Mr. Harrison made the observation that the council two years ago committed itself to repave Craghead street and that it had not been done. He pointed out that this street was provided for in the bond issue and that it was not treating the people of the community fairly to postpone action on the street. Final action showed approval of the Marshall, Astor and Westmoreland projects, Henry and Bellevue streets lying over and Spring street being passed by.

Another unsuccessful effort was made last night to dispense with the reading of the monthly accounts. Col. Carrington proved adamant to this scheme, observing that it was very necessary for the council to hear the accounts read and that though it took about 15 minutes it should be carried out. Mr. Gardner suggested that as the fast reading of the various amounts meant nothing to the council and that as the accounts are properly audited and double checked it was loss of time.

The increasing of the salary of the city engineer from $3,600 to $4,000 was accomplished with little comment. Under the provision adopted the city will supply Engineer R. K. Danville with an automobile but he will have to maintain it at his own expense.

A further ordinance adopted last night gives the fire chief wider powers at the scene of fires. He is now authorized to establish fire lines and to prevent any person not duly authorized from going within them. Under the ordinance failure to comply with the chief's order will result in a fine of $20. Another ordinance provides a penalty for the motorist who drives his car over lines of hose being used at a fire.

Under the call of the roll after the transaction of anticipated business, Councilman Geoghegan made some observations on the recent ordinance providing that all motorists shall provide themselves with liability insurance. He told the council that he had encountered a deal of criticism of the ordinance from many people and that upon reflection he would not now vote for the passage of the ordinance as he did when it came up for passage. His objections were based on the alleged fact that it is discriminatory—that it is a bad ordinance and that it should be repealed. He said further that several attorneys in the city questioned its constitutionality.

Col. Carrington suggested to the public welfare committee the possibility of entering into an agreement with the county authorities in the conduct of the almshouse. He stated that there were very few in the city almshouse at the present time and that there were equally few in the county almshouse. Both, however, are maintained as separate institutions with considerable overhead expense and he expressed the belief that one almshouse for the city and county could be operated on a more economic basis.

JOSEPH ENOCH INDICTED FOR KILLING GIRL

RICHMOND Va., May 10.—An indictment in two counts charging criminal assault and murder was returned by the Hastings Court grand jury here today against Joseph Enoch, youthful railroad shop employe and alleged slayer of Shevick, 16 year old school girl whose body was found in an abandoned lot within a few blocks of her home on the morning of April 27. Judge David Crockett Richardson set the case for trial on June 11.

The grand jury had the case under consideration about two hours. Four witnesses were examined. They were Captain Alex S. Wright, chief of detectives, Detective I. G. Cousins, W. R. Thompson, of Memorial Hospital where the girl died several hours after her unconscious form was found in the field, and Dr. J. M. Whitfield, the city coroner who conducted the inquest.

George E. Wise has been employed as special counsel in the case and will assist Commonwealth's Attorney Dave E. Battenfield, Jr. in the prosecution of Enoch.

Evidence Shows Morse Unable To Meet Obligations

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, May 10.—More documentary evidence designed to show that the Groton Iron Works' Noank, Conn. ship plant was unable to meet promptly its obligations up to the time it received a contract for wooden ships from the Emergency Fleet Corporation on June 15, 1917, was introduced today by the government at the Morse trial.

Most of the evidence took the form of letters from creditors or their attorneys, demanding payment of bills ranging from $75 to several thousand dollars and which, it was said, were long past due. In some of the letters threats of court action were made. There also were letters from Dexter Rood, treasurer of the Noank plant, in reply to the demands in which statements were made that the company was short of ready cash, but had large sums owing it which it hoped to collect soon when settlements of the bills in question would be made.

The first letter offered was written by Benjamin W. Morse from the office of the Continental Trading Company, ship builders, New York City, to his brother, E. A. Morse at Noank. One, under date of January 5, 1917, stated that the writer was enclosing a check for $3,650 to cover certain checks of the Noank plant, adding that if the check went to protest "it would ruin your credit, which is bad enough as it is."

A second letter, dated the same day, stated that a check for $2,156 was enclosed and added that "I presume you need money pretty badly."

"It looks very rich," the letter continued, "are you soaking the life out of us? See you think we have a little money. You have charged us $50 or $60 a thousand (feet) for lumber which cost you $28. I know you are pretty hungry for money, but for Heaven's sake don't soak us on bills in an effort to get it all."

Asked by counsel for the defense about his statement in one letter to a creditor that there was $300,000 due the Noank Plant, Mr. Rood said a large part of the money due the company was for repair work done on ships of the United States Steamship Company, another Morse concern, and the parent of all the others. He could not say whether any of this money ever was collected.

Rood said that at another period when the company was being pressed for payments, its bills payable amounted to $100,000 and it then was negotiating for the sale of a schooner for that amount.

The government had not concluded its presentation of evidence as to the financial affairs of the Noank plant at the time Justice Stafford adjourned the trial over until Monday.

BANK IS ROBBED BY TWO BANDITS

(By The Associated Press)
SAVANNAH, Ga., May 10.—Two unidentified men entered the Morris Plan Company this afternoon at five o'clock, bound the cashier and escaped with $1,500 in cash and several thousand dollars in liberty bonds.

E. B. McCuen, secretary treasurer of the institution, was alone in the bank when the two men entered and ordered him to throw up his hands. Neither man wore a mask. McCuen was taken into the directors room and bound. When he heard the robbers leave he went to a telephone and notified the police. Officers cut the rope binding McCuen. The bank is located in the heart of the banking district and within fifty feet of the Citizens and Southern Bank, where the Federal Reserve Bank is housed.

$5 Tips—Actors; and Not the Millionaires Give Them

By HORTENSE SAUNDERS

NEW YORK, May 11.—Speaking of long distance dancing contests, consider the unique record of Charlie Raiser, the oldest waiter on Broadway. For 40 years now he's been dancing attendance upon diners from all over the world who sooner or later arrive on the famous street.

Charlie has worn out hundreds of pairs of shoes doing his 100,000 miles from kitchen to table, carrying his millions of steaks and chops and as many bottles of ale and beer—the latter previous, of course, to 1919. Charlie has collected a wrinkle here and there, and his once sandy hair is now as white as his apron and pretty scarce on top, and his walk has a certain suggestion of rheumatism, but he assures me he is still a match for any of the youngsters in the game.

But Charlie likes young people. He says this talk about their wildness is all bunk.

"They've forgotten the old days," he exclaimed, "when Broadway cultivated lobster palaces where it now has cafeterias and hat shops. Back when the Warburger flowed and a man could raise a thirst. Why in those days a waiter needed a strong arm if the place didn't have a bouncer."

"Today young folks are quiet and orderly and polite. They don't criticize their food. They take what you give them. They don't ask for trills and axings."

Charlie knows all the theatrical folk on Broadway. He remembers all the forgotten actors and actresses whose no yamusing photographs line walls of Brown's chop house, one of the few famous old places that have weathered the Volstead storm.

He knows how Ethel Barrmore prefers her steak—slightly rare and very thick. He always brings George M. Cohan just the esauce he wants for his chops though scarcely anyone else uses that particular brand.

The tipping business is running about as usual, he says.

But the reports of the large tips waiters get have always been exaggerated, he confesses. "Our biggest tips come from the actors, not the millionaire bankers. Wait Streeters calculate their 10 per cent. pretty accurately.

This request was made by the board because the Leviathan was reconditioned under Mr. Lasker's regime.

The new chairman of the Shipping Board was born in Madison, Wisconsin. In 1909 he organized the Edward P. Farley Company of Chicago, ship owners, brokers and marine insurance agents.

In 1921 he came to Washington as vice president of the Emergency Fleet Corporation in charge of liquidation and served in that capacity until last August, when he resigned to resume private business.

Mr. Farley was recommended to the president for appointment as Shipping Board chairman by Mr. Lasker.

It was reported today that another vacancy would be created before July 1 by the resignation of J. B. Smull, president of the Emergency Fleet Corporation.

TEXAS OIL WELL STILL ON FIRE

(By The Associated Press)
CORPUSCANA, Tex., May 10.—The Hughes-McKie well, which exploded yesterday, killing at least fifteen men, continued to gush forth its giant torch of fire tonight, fed by the constant flow of 15,000 barrels of oil and 3,000,000 feet of gas.

For more than 24 hours the flames have leaped high in spectacular displays. Red streaks of fire soar as from a mighty nozzle, disappearing in huge black clouds of smoke, which drift with the wind in a surging blast.

Fire extinguishing equipment is being hurriedly placed. It will be necessary to use fire-foam and steam from a dozen boilers.

The bodies of at least six men remain in the first zone, according to Dewitt Watkins, one of those in charge at the well today. He said five bodies could be seen and that another workman was missing. One or two spectators have perished he believes.

CHICAGO, May 10.—The Springer Heirs, Incorporated, a corporation made up of the heirs of Charles Christopher Springer, meeting here, have completed arrangements for their suit in which they hope to obtain possession of the Springer fortune which they assert includes the city of Wilmington, Del., crown jewels and heirlooms dating from 420 A. D., and land and money in Stockholm, Sweden, also are included in the fortune, they assert.

PITCHERS THINK RUBE'S RECORD WILL STAND

NEW YORK, May 10.—The modern strike-out record for a nine inning game is 16, held by the late George Edward Waddell, otherwise known as "Rube."

Rack in 1884, Ramsey, pitching for Providence in the National League, whiffed 19, but conditions were quite different then.

Waddell made his strike-out record as a member of the St. Louis club, at a time when the "Rube" was regarded as well nigh thorough. Connie Mack, tired of Waddell, passed him on to Jimmy McAleer at St. Louis.

Shortly afterward the Rube took deep dark revenge at the expense of the Athletics. Sent against his old teammates, Waddell struck out 16, establishing a modern whiff record for nine innings.

No pitcher in recent years has had so many chances to break that record as Walter Johnson. Had the Washington star been a pitcher who sought the limelight he probably would have turned the trick. With Johnson, however, winning the ball game always meant more than an individual record.

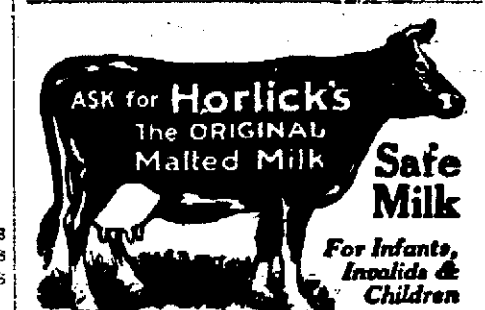

There are two records which baseball players think will stand for a long time. One of them is Babe Ruth's 59 home runs and the other Waddell's 16 strike-outs.

"With the lively ball now in use, to think of striking out 16 or more players is a joke," says Walter Johnson.

"In these days six strike outs is out of the ordinary," says Grover Cleveland Alexander.

"The lively ball and no freak pitching makes Waddell's record safe for some time," opines Ed Walsh.

REDUCTION ANNOUNCED

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, May 10.—The reduction of 114,823 tons in the unfilled orders of the United States Steel Corporation announced today was not unexpected by Wall Street, notwithstanding that steel shares on the New York Stock Exchange turned heavy on the announcement. Total orders of 7,288,509 tons on April 30 were slightly less than 500,000 tons above those of February, the low month this year, and nearly 2,200,000 tons over those of the corresponding date last year.

How to throw off that tired, listless feeling

GENERAL—Tiredness, listlessness, and a "tea" every day are common to many people. The reason is that the blood is not pure. S. S. S. will give you that greater endurance, energy, strength, and a more youthful appearance.

Mr. J. M. Mar, Los Angeles, Calif., writes: "Overwork occasioned a complaint which consisted of a tired feeling and pains in the back, that finally exhausted all my strength. A friend advised me to take S. S. S. and after taking only several bottles I was entirely relieved."

"Y. W." Entertain Their Employers

The second of a series of banquets tendered by Y. W. C. A. girls to their employers was given last night at the Business Girls' Council and proved a splendid success from every standpoint—or maybe it should be stated two standpoints. The employers were delighted with the course dinner and the sparkling program; the girls, being hostesses, gained pleasure from mere accomplishment.

Miss Gertrude Adams, president of the Business Girls' Council, was toastmistress, and she handled her task with consummate poise and charming grace.

By way of getting things started and introducing the guests to their young and pretty hostesses a delightful structural comedy in verse was enacted. Each guest found with his place-card a verse, and these, read in sequence outlined the various steps that are taken when any building is erected.

After the well prepared and served menu had received full notice, Allen Herman was called upon to discourse on the employers' point of view. Mr. Herman is a large employer and his observations and conclusions were interesting and instructive, drawn as they were from many experiences.

In response to Mr. Herman, Miss Louise Vaughn came back with the viewpoint of the employees. So original and so interesting were her expressions that the liberty is taken of quoting in extenso from her talk:

"You have heard the remarks of Mr. Herman from an employer's point of view. They have asked me to talk from an employee's point of view. As our Business Girls' Council is composed chiefly of girls who work in offices we will view it from that angle."

The conditions existing in the world today have made it necessary that a large percentage of women should go out into public view. The business woman not only has to support herself, but in most cases she is called upon to share her part of the family expense. The business woman is no longer considered a novelty, but is quite a necessity. Indeed, in the past few years women have looked upon as a mere machine to help get the day's work off. But times have changed and today she is one of the most essential factors in the business. Today the successful business woman chooses a young lady of refinement as well as capability for his office. It is a real asset to have a pleasant and courteous young lady in the daily routine of business is realized now more, both by employer and employee.

"It seems to me that co-operation, this business of working together, is the keynote of success. And when this spirit of co-operation is woven to such a point that there is a clear understanding between employer and employee, and when your employee realizes that you have an interest in her daily habits, and not only in the mere fact of how many letters can she turn out or how fast she can add a column of figures, and when you realize that she has an active in-

Mother Who Is Different; She Hopes Boy Won't Be President!

BY ALEXANDER HERMAN
(Special to The Bee)
BROOKLYN, N. Y., May 11.—There's at least one mother in this country who doesn't want her boy to be president.

Yet he is one of the possibilities mentioned for the presidential race of 1934!

Mrs. Catherine Smith, 71 years old, is the mother; and Alfred E. Smith, governor of New York, the son.

"If I had my way," says the little gray-haired woman, "he wouldn't even be governor. He would be working right here in the city near his mother."

"I used to see him 'most every day. Now it's only once every week or two, when he's able to run down from Albany. If he went to Washington, it wouldn't be even that often."

"Besides, look what the presidency did to Wilson. It nearly killed him physically. I don't want my boy to run any such risk, no matter how great an honor it would be."

The little old lady looked straight ahead—a living replica of Whistler's famous portrait, "Mother." She is mother not only of "Al" Smith, but also was selected to typify New York's mother in the observance of Mother's Day.

"Of course," she went on, "Alfred comes down as often as he can. He came to take us all to the circus, just as he does every year. But it isn't often enough to suit me."

"I don't want to interfere with him too much now. He has to lead his own life."

"But I surely did interfere when he was younger. I remember the first time he went New Year's calling. We were living down on Oliver street, on the East Side. It was nearly ten o'clock and the boy hadn't come home yet. So I went after him. It was too late for a young man to be out without his mother."

"That drew a smile from her daughter, Mrs. Mary A. Glynn, with whom Mrs. Smith is living in an old-fashioned house in Brooklyn.

"The boy would always listen to his mother," she said, "and then take it out on me, hosing me around ever since he was six years old."

"I thought Alfred would grow up to be a priest," says his mother. "But interest in your business and is very anxious for same to be a success, then there can be no cause for friction."

Her assistant responsibilities upon your assistant and with the results. Give her an opportunity to carry out her own suggestions. Let her know that you have the utmost confidence in her ability. Immediately she feels the keenest interest in your business. She almost feels as if it were her own and she will take the greatest pride in seeing that the smallest detail is carried out."

Miss Pattie Douthat, as a woman employer, responded in her usual interesting manner. She said that "The supreme business of life, the one that requires most knowledge, most patience, most efficiency, is that of the head of the house, the wife, the mother, not a modern occupation, but after all the chief business of a woman's life."

"The girl employee knows that the more recreation her employer has within limits the more efficient she is. The shorter hours, she has the more efficient she is, during those hours she is more pleased with her job she is, the better service she will give. This, too, she knows, although she might wish for perfect assistants, she herself, can never be a perfect head. That even if she were a perfect head, she could never have perfect assistants, for we are all human and full of fancies, weaknesses and faults."

The keynote talk of the evening was made by Frank Talbot, who emphasized the need of the Y. W. C. A. for a home of their own, centrally located and thoroughly equipped. The speaker stated that the people of Danville would be recreant to their duty if, when called upon, they did not respond willingly to this most worthy cause.

Mr. Talbot's statement in this respect met with ready endorsement from the men present, several of whom promised support when the he didn't show much aptitude at school. His mind ran along other lines. One of his teachers once told me that if he paid as much attention to his studies as he did to acting, he might amount to something."

At the Mansion House in Albany, the governor has a special room for campaign for a Y. W. C. A. building was started.

Other speakers during the course of the evening were Judge Walton Brown, John E. Overby and Mr. Fiora.

The principal woman speaker of the occasion was Miss Sallie Haskins, of the American National Bank, who asserted that no avenues were closed to women at the present time.

Dove Commandery Celebrates Day

For the first time in the recent history of Dove commandery No. 7, Knights Templar, a formal public celebration of Ascension Day was held last night in the auditorium of the new temple, this being one of the observances peculiar to this, the Christian branch of Masonry. The sermon appropriate to the important event which is fundamental in Christian faith, even as is the resurrection of Jesus, was preached by the Rev. Wilfred E. Roach, rector of Christ church, Martinsville, Va., and himself a member of Dove commandery. It was pre-eminently and solely a devout religious service designed to strengthen and more widely disseminate faith in the fundamentals of Christianity upon which this branch of Masonry is founded.

The members of the commandery assembled in the auditorium at 7:45 and at the order of the acting commander the lines formed began to move to the auditorium, where a large audience composed of the wives, daughters and friends of knights templar and a number of gentlemen not members of the order had already assembled. The processional hymn was the familiar but stirring march, "Onward Christian Soldiers."

The Rev. J. Clyde Holland, prelate, presided in the services in the auditorium. After the singing of the hymn, the prelate led in the recitation of the Lord's Prayer, the knights uncovered and kneeling, a brief responsive reading was followed by the reading in the same way of the 24th and 25 psalms, after which the Gloria in Excelsis was sung. Then the first lesson, from the prophecy of Daniel, chapter VII, 9th to 15th verses was read. After a brief chant, the second lesson, from St. Luke's Gospel, chapter XXIV verses 44 to the close, was read. After singing a psalm, swords were drawn and presented, and all the knights united in the repetition of the Agathos Cronos. After another short responsive reading, the Rev. Mr. Roach offered the prayer for this occasion, whereupon all standing united in singing the hymn, "Our Fathers God to Thee." (All of America after which the Rev. Wilfred E. Roach began his sermon. Following the sermon, the prelate, Rev. J. C. Holland, offered the prayer after which a benediction was said and the closing hymn ended the ceremonial.

BANDIT OUTRAGE LIKE UPRISING OF THE BOXERS

(By The Associated Press)
TOKIO, May 10.—The newspaper "Jiji" compares the Chinese bandit outrages on the Shantung border with the Boxer uprising, and says it may necessitate stationing foreign troops in the principal centers of China. Though Japan has not suffered in the present instance, she cannot remain indifferent, because of her close connections in China, adds the paper. The Chugai, believes that the raid was originated by parties wishing to embarrass the Peking government, and this, in its opinion, makes the case more serious. The Kokumin says the incident shows the necessity of abandoning the provincial armies of China, and thus suggests that soldiers were involved.

APPEAL TO ROTARY

(By The Associated Press)
SHANGHAI, May 10.—The Shanghai Rotary Club has cabled headquarters of the International Association of Rotary Clubs in Chicago asking it to broadcast an appeal to the 1,300 Rotary clubs to demand that the foreign governments insure the protection of life and property in China and put into effect measures making banditry impossible.

Jap Experts To Study U. S. Jury System

By DUKE N. PARRY

TOKIO, May 10.—Six leading jurists of Japan will leave this city for the United States some time this month for one year in the United States and Europe, during which time they will make an intensive study of the jury system in those countries visited. The six jurists have been named as a result of the passage in the last session of the Imperial Diet of a bill which is designed to give to the Japanese a jury system something like that of the United States.

The jurists who will sail soon, representing Tokyo, Osaka, Yokohama, Nagoya, Kyoto and Kobe, and are well known throughout the Empire of Japan. It is the hope of the Department of Justice officials who named them, that their studies abroad will make possible installation of a jury system in Japan by 1927.

The government this year appropriated 95,000 yen ($48,000) for expenses in investigating other jury systems and installation of the system which will be worked out for Japan.

The men, who will first visit the United States, are: Mr. Kozaburo Akama, a procurator of the Yokohama District Court; Judge Y. Chouns and Mr. Shimayasu, of the Tokyo District Court; Judge Hidenaka Sasaki, head of the Osaka District Court; and Mr. Saburo Hamano, of the Department of Justice. The Japanese jurist party will study the general plans of court buildings, dormitories for jurymen and the practical operation of the jury system.

Commodity Prices Are High Enough Says R. W. Babson

WELLESLEY HILLS, Mass., May 10.—The radical recovery of commodity prices from August, 1921, to date, has brought general business above average and is the foundation for the reasoning of a good many who have predicted increasing prices thru 1923.

Therefore, Roger W. Babson's statement on the situation, issued today, is of unusual interest.

"There have been five major movements in commodity prices since the beginning of the World War," says Mr. Babson. "First, we had a great rise from nearly 1915 to the peak in August, 1918. Immediately at the close of the war prices suffered a sentimental decline. Then post-war inflation caused a steady rise from the spring of 1919 to the middle of 1920. "As depression set in the worst commodity panic in economic history carried us over the middle of 1920 to the low of August, 1921. The fifth phase of the movement has been a 19 months' rise during which time prices have climbed over 50 per cent. an abnormal development.

"The reasons for this recent upswing give us some indication as to its probable development. It was caused by an increase in physical production, and has continued until today it is above the normal growth line. Total volume of business has increased until it is also slightly above normal. Monetary conditions have been and are very good, with large volume of circulation, strong volume of Federal Reserve statistics, good turn over, and sound credit conditions.

"A shortage of transportation has stimulated buying. Wages have increased substantially. Purchasing power of the industrial community has been reflected in better business. Even the farmer who was hard hit has gradually climbed out of his financial chaos. The upward trend of the stock market and new construction figures add two more arguments on the bullish side of the ledger.

"The present technical position of the commodity market, however, is very similar to that of 1920. Production has reached a point where we cannot hope to confine at such a rate indefinitely. Many commodities are being made so fast that they must of necessity pile up surplus stocks by 1924. The present administration is also adverse to further inflation. Car shortage has been reduced to one third of what it was and more favorable weather conditions and seasonal changes in business cannot help but clear up the traffic situation.

"Since the present market is being adequately supplied there is little justification that increasing prices of commodities can long continue. The cost of living fundamentally is still too high and is destined during the next few years to recede to a lower level. European conditions are still unfavorable, and until a constructive program is announced we cannot reasonably expect a further radical stimulation of business.

"The growing reluctance on the part of the buyer to stock up on high priced merchandise is an indication of the end of the upward rise by 1924 at the latest. The underlying structure is probably strong enough to justify moderate advance in some lines and a high average commodity price level for some months longer; but it is probable that prices by or before 1924 will turn for a reaction. As the advance slows up and transportation difficulties are solved, buying will ease off and general business should fall back to a level below normal. This slackening will ease money rates and should cause bonds to again take up their long swing rise."

der, however, was reversed. Instead of the bride or groom being bedridden it was the officiating clergyman. Afflicted with rheumatism and too ill to leave his bed, Rev. Robert J. Graetz, pastor of the Martin Luther Church, four miles west of Bucyrus, propped up with pillows, united in marriage his only daughter, Miss Anna Roselle Graetz and Frank Carl Marschner, chief clerk of the Detroit Edison Company.

Radio and Movies Boon To Vessels

ABROAD U. S. HENDERSON, May 10.—The radio and the motion picture camera have brought Broadway to the American Navy.

Far out here in the Atlantic, with a stiff gale beating a steady tattoo on the hastily improvised canvas screen, strong between two life boats, Marion Davies, Jackie Coogan and other film firmaments whose names adorn Broadway fronts, cheer, and are lustily cheered by an eager group of officers and sailors sprawling upon the quarter deck. Even the rocking and pitching of the big transport and the driving smoke of waves that beat over the deck fail to disconcert the ship's band, which plays merrily during the show.

It is a veritable Broadway programme—in fact, the films are the latest from Broadway exchanges—International News reels, comics, travelogues and the feature picture, the most "mellow" of melodramas. The entire performance lasting two hours. With the dying strains of a lively march number the "gobs" (there being about 1,000 recruits on board getting their first "taste" of the sea) drift disconsolately below to quarters.

Except that there is no cost, no searching for seats in the dark, one might feel quite at home at such a movie show in Broadway, or Michigan Boulevard, or Main street. On warm tropical evenings, with a sweet breeze wafting lazily overhead and a moon of exquisite richness beaming down appreciatively, one does not ever care to get back to a crowded theater. Life never was more enjoyable than when one is plowing irresponsibly through an enchanting tropical sea.

Fore, in the officers' dining hall, the strains of a Broadway jazz may be heard, by radio, those who would be a thousand miles away, in a guided cabaret, "up New York way."

From as distant points as Pittsburgh, Chicago, Omaha, Fort Worth the Henderson, by night, learns of the latest music by this wondrous radio.

Here amid the incessant swashing of the blue Atlantic against the gray steel sides of the Navy's only transport, carrying Secretary of the Navy Denby, high Nav officers, Senators, Representatives and newspaper correspondents, who, after days and nights of continuous travel, seemingly without course, everyone tired of every one else—there is nothing quite so exciting as the radio news sheet every day, containing short stories of interest from every large city in the world, gathered during the night. The sheet is issued every morning, placed at each seat at breakfast, and is as eagerly sought and read as the metropolitan papers, even though a juicy divorce scandal, for instance, might be thrilling the folk back in the States.

Because of the radio there is nothing of importance in the world with which even the newest sailor aboard is not acquainted.

"All work and no play makes Jack a dull boy" is a Navy tradition. That is why, in addition to the movie and radio programmes, there is every day on board band concerts, games, boxing and wrestling matches and all manner of amusements.

Education is not neglected. Aside from the routine training required to man a craft of Uncle Sam's far-flung Navy, every vessel carries a high-class library containing accepted works on almost every conceivable subject. Ship's officers give daily talks on topics of the hour—on ports and countries to be visited, and whenever convenient classes are formed for special instruction in modern languages.

Double-Header Divided With the Patriot Squad

Danville and Greensboro divided a double-header yesterday afternoon. Carolina taking the opening, a full nine-inning affair, while the Tobaccoists copped the night-cap affair by scoring the winning margin of two runs in the sixth inning, just as the visitors broke a tie and the hearts of many fans by scoring the decisive counter in their final effort in the first game. The scores were 4 to 3 in Greensboro's favor in the first encounter, and 5 to 3 in Danville's favor in the abbreviated event, the second game being seven innings by agreement.

Not a few Danville followers of the sport joined the ardent chorus near the close of the first game and kept up their hammering without abatement throughout the second. One of the charitable explanations of their course is that they did not know what play was attempted, the miscarriage of which spelled defeat instead of victory. Strange to say it was Grover Land, a veteran of the game whose failures to pull off the scheduled plays successfully, was chiefly panned by this coterie of super-critics. Perhaps it would be just as well to give James Teague and some of the other Greensboro veterans credit for a bit of smart playing instead of attributing abortive scoring attempts by Danville damp playing by any of the local players.

As it was, the fairly large crowd witnessing the games saw two games that were real contests until the last man was out, and while there were errors on both sides in the first and on one side in the second, they are a usual if not a necessary factor in ball games. It was a great batting rally by Danville in the fifth and sixth which enabled the Tobaccoists to tie the Greensboro in the one and win in the other innings.

WORLD'S CHAMP

JOE TURNER

He is here dressed as he was, when foremost physical director for the American Expeditionary Force during its training period. Turner will defend his title from Fritz Hansen Saturday night in the municipal hall, for the benefit of Danville Post No. 16 of the American Legion. In addition to this main bout several other minor bouts of interest have been arranged by the legion. This event promises to be the best of the season. Those who are expecting to attend, are advised to secure reservations in advance.

There are two sides to the first game with Greensboro yesterday. When the old records are consulted, it would appear that the visitors should have won without any trouble—and they did. But, when several of the warblers take the writer into their confidence, they assert that the Tobaccoists should have won, save for the folly of the ninth inning. But when all the various angles of that play are considered aside from the disappointment of the moment—well, it was just a break of the game.

The ninth inning tally, which threatened to turn a defeat for Danville into a victory, but barely failed to occur something as follows: Regan, after securing three balls, waited for two strikes and then whiffed at a very low ball. He was out, Smith then hit a mean twister to Teague, who fumbled, but recovered in time to throw to Cox, who also fumbled, and Smith was safe. Danville's first sacker immediately went ahead to place his name in the book of fame by getting a long lead and stealing second. The runner was on the sack almost before the ball struck Pierre's glove, and the catcher made no attempt to catch Smith. So it was impossible to credit the runner with a stolen base. Smith then stole third and for the same reason could not be credited with a stolen base. Heckle was treated to a walk, placing a man on first and one on third. At this psychological moment, walks to the plate one Grover Land, from whom there is no smarter or more proficient catcher in the league. Obsessed with the idea of doing the unexpected, Grover, without a sign, pitched a changeup, which he hit the first ball pitched. It went straight into Teague's hands, who touched Heckle as he was running to second and then threw to Cox, doubling Grover. Smith crossed the plate, but it didn't mean anything, as the score was over, the score being 4 to 3.

Greensboro opened the first frame scoring two runs, neither of which were earned. Shaw was safe at first on Dorman's error, but was thrown out at second when O'Hara hit to short, but Smith dropped a throw and gave O'Hara life at first, the runner going to third. Pierre hit safely, and the runner scored, Pierre going to second when Trexler hit to short, but Teague hit safely and Pierre scored.

In the fourth the visitors scored another run on two singles and a fielder's choice.

In the fifth, with the score tied at three all, Teague hit over the fence. The sad story of Danville's half of the ninth has already been told.

Danville scored one run in the first on two walks and a single, Asar in the third, counter was pushed across on two hits and a sacrifice. The sixth frame also brought a run for the locals on two walks and a single.

In the second game, Manager Carroll of the visitors sent Morbach to the mound while Manager Murphy's selection was Watts. The Guilford club put three runs across in the first inning through no fault of Pitcher Watts, for two Carolinians were out and a chance had been given to retire the third and with him the side scoreless. Unfortunately, however, Heckle failed to handle Cox's boundless clean-up, and with two runners on Teague smashed a double to right which scored O'Hara who had walked and Cox who had gotten on by the error. Then, Jim Conley cracked a safety to right and Cox cantered across the rubber.

With a lead of three runs against them, the Murphys came back strongly. Winston opening with a single and after Dorman and Murphy had been retired on infield raps, Trexler drove a two-cushion swat to right for the first score and himself pulled up at second, whence he scored a moment later on Regan's long single. Smith made a good try to send Eddie across with the tying score, but Conley got under his hard line drive.

Unscathed, thanks to a fast double play by Dorman and Smith. In the third he started by walking Pierre, but Cox whiffed and Teague set up one to Trexler, who drew a pass. With two on, Charlie Carroll singled to right. At this juncture Manager Murphy, who earnestly desired this game, signalled Pitcher Gibson, who had been warming up to come in. He forced Magrann to ground to Heckle, and the danger passed.

Manager Carroll also wanted that shortened game, and so when the locals faced Mickey O'Quinn, who has usually puzzled Danville batsmen, the sequel indicated that it was a wise change for the man with the legs.

Regan fanned two men and forced another to fly out in the second. In the third he whiffed Winston and Murphy and the best Dorman could do was a boulder to Magrann, which spelled suicide. In the fourth Trexler gave Carroll and assist and was waved away from Cox's corner by Umpire Ferguson. The young Greensboro right-hander made Regan, who had sent a fly to Magrann, for three innings the Murphys had not gotten a man on, but Mickey was wanted out by Heckle in opening the fifth, and the opportunity for the ting cover came. Land tapped to pitcher and was out, and Gibson drove one on, however, came through with a to Magrann, who tossed him out. Winston single to center, sending Heckle who had reached third on the two outs, over the pan with the tying run, amid applause. Meanwhile Gibson had allowed the Guilford men only a hit each in the fourth and fifth and none in the sixth.

In Danville's sixth and last batting spree, it was a real one. Murphy opened with a clean single which Magrann could not touch, but the visiting shortstop squeezed Trexler's fly to short left. Eddie Regan was the man of the moment, however, and tapped a sizzler through the center of the diamond, scoring Murphy, who had cleanly swiped second. Eddie taking second on the throw to the pan. Then Smith, who has made a great impression on the fans, hammered one against the rightfield wall, and Regan cantered in under a pull. Heckle waited and walked, and Smith, impatient at having to wait, swiped third on "the best catcher" in the Piedmont league. With the game won and only one out, Grover Land, on what was probably a hit and run play, slammed a hard liner, which Heckle by a great play got at shortstop height, doubling Heckle at first. The Town-Homers took fresh hope when O'Hara got on by Heckle's momentary juggle, after Shaw had been retired. Pierre flied out to Dorman, but Lanky Cox, who had done no hitting in his other three chances, cracked one to right for two cushions. With two on two down, and Teague up, it began to look bluish, but Winston ended the agony by his fine catch of Teague's fly.

HORSES ARRIVE FOR CLASSIC

(By The Associated Press)
 BALTIMORE, Md., May 10.—With the arrival of Zev, Belter Luck, Blane Seig and Hobgoblin from New York, all the candidates for the Preakness, Pimlico's $50,000 classic next Saturday, will be on the ground. None of those nominated from Kentucky are expected to show up. Zev, a son of The Finn, made a great reputation last season and in his only outing this spring, was returned a winner. Some of the "dewon" ones think he may go to the post in the Preakness Saturday the favorite. Martingale also is well favored and General Thatcher has a good following.

Two Preakness horses, Tall Timber and Flagstaff, showed in the Kentucky States at Pimlico yesterday and two others, Chickadee and Golden Rule, in the Arundel. Tall Timber won handsily enough and has worked out a mile and a sixteenth in 1:19. He will be the Wilson-hope for the big race and will be ridden by Butwell. Flagstaff is regarded as a doubtful starter as he has not yet shown Preakness quality.

SCORES IMMODEST DRESS OF WOMEN

MADRID, May 10.—Spain is blaze with discussions of modesty, as the result of an attack from the pulpit on the mode of dress of the highest ladies of the court, including the Queen herself.

Father Calanaz, preaching in the fashionable private chapel of the convent of the Catechist, hung from the front of his pulpit reproductions of photographs from a society paper. The congregation was shocked, when they recognized a recent photograph of the Queen in the midst of these pictures.

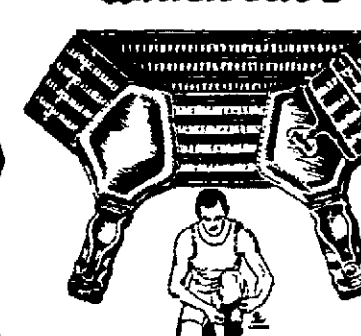

The priest was scathing in his denunciation of present day morality, charging that "these women in the land" were shockingly modern.

As a result of this sermon the priest was summoned before the Bishop of Madrid and was forbidden to preach again pending a full investigation. Meanwhile the Minister of Justice ordered proceedings to be instituted against the priest for lese-majesty. He protested that his sermon had been misunderstood.

BROKE UP HOUSEKEEPING.

"We had to break up housekeeping because of my wife's stomach trouble. No medicine did her any good for more than a few hours. On a visit to Oshkosh a friend praised Mayr's Wonderful Remedy so highly my wife tried it and she has enjoyed the best of health since taking it." It is a simple harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. J. C. McFall's Drug Store and druggists everywhere.—adv.

GIRLS! LEMONS BLEACH FRECKLES

Make this Lemon Cream and just see Tan, Freckles Disappear

Mix the juice of two lemons with three ounces of Orchard White, which any druggist will supply for a few cents, shake well in a bottle, and you have a whole quarter-pint of the most wonderful skin softener and complexion beautifier. Massage this sweetly fragrant lemon cream into the face, neck, arms and hands, then shortly note the youthful beauty, softness and whiteness of your skin.

Famous stage beauties use this harmless lemon cream to bring that velvety, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.—adv.

BE CAREFUL WHAT YOU WASH YOUR HAIR WITH

Many soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much free alkali which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Mulsified coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It is very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Mulsified at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for several weeks.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Mulsified in a cup of glass with a little warm water is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub the Mulsified coconut oil in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to manage. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Mulsified.—adv.

Beautiful Mouth Easy to Have, Says Madame Rubinstein

BY MME. HELENA RUBINSTEIN
International Beauty Expert.

THE beautiful mouth has a graceful, firm outline, neither too small nor too large, neither thick nor thin, not weak or too aggressive. The lips are fresh and vivid, the teeth perfect and the breath pure.

Needless to state, there are few perfect specimens. But the mouth responds more readily to cultivation than any other feature of the face. Biting the lips coarsens them. Making them up hastily may ruin their expressiveness. Constantly wetting them is an unlovely habit.

These exercises will be found beneficial:

With opened mouth, press lips close to the teeth, drawing them inward as far as possible, and in that position move the mouth vigorously from right to left.

Close the mouth and draw the corners alternately to the right and the left.

Close the mouth tightly, inflate the cheeks and move the lower jaw up and down as though eating.

Grasp the flesh firmly and knead the cheeks between thumb and finger.

Close the mouth tightly, inflate the cheeks and tap with the fingers quickly and vigorously.

With the knuckles of your fingers stroke cheeks with strong pressure from the lobe of the ear to the mouth.

Try each of these a dozen times a day, and keep the muscles about the mouth firm and the flesh about them from sagging.

JOHN POWELL LAUDS MISS RUTH DRAPER

"She's Wonderful Character Actress," Says Great Piano Artist.

The following telegram expresses the enthusiastic estimate of one artist by the American piano virtuoso:

New York, N. Y., May 6, 1923.

Dean Chas. G. Maples, University, Virginia.

Ruth Draper has the most wonderful power of characterization I have ever known. She plays on her audience like a master musician on his instrument. She sweeps them with gales of laughter and shakes them with sobs. She can make a cow laugh or a stone shed tears. Am happy to know that the University is to have the delight of hearing her. With cordial greetings,

JOHN POWELL
Miss Draper will appear at Masonic auditorium tonight at 8:30. Hear her.

VARIETY is the spice of beauty as well as of life in general. Few women ever attain the plastic beauty of Nazimova, who can be a child one minute and the most mature woman the next, and few have ever been able to retain the girlishness of figure Nazimova has—but few ever develop anything like her mastery of self. "Cry a little, laugh a little, eat a little, play a little, work much and love much," is her beauty creed.

D. M. I. CADETS FINISH STIFF BAYONET DRILL

With slashing strokes and heavy crotch and face smashes, tearing dummies from their supports and ripping up their chairs, Danville Military Institute Cadets today finished their bayonet work for the year. The bayonet drill was a most successful one, and the time since has been spent in instructing the cadets in bayonet work both offensive and defensive. Long point, short point, chin jab, crotch and face strokes have all been taken up, explained and executed. Club rifle and defensive work have also been engaged in, with some actual fencing face to face with imaginary opponents.

Today's work was executed with the young soldiers arranged in three attacking waves. As soon as one of these had completed its task and rushed on beyond the line of dummies, a following attacking wave took up the task and as promptly proceeded to kill the dummies over again. Each wave, when having passed beyond the enemy, passed to the flank and rear and reformed into another attacking wave to follow some one preceding one.

The instructor was especially well pleased with the spirit and the cadets when handling bayonets, and with the fight and grit they showed under the heavy strain.

With the completion of bayonet practice, only two parts of the military program remain to be completed, namely, target practice and guard duty. These will be attacked in rapid order with the beginning of next week, and two weeks more time will find the military work for the year practically completed. All will then be polished off for final dress parade, which will occur on Monday, June the fourth at four o'clock P. M.

CIRCUS DAY Watch For Big Street Parade At Noon—Two Performances at Show Grounds

Today is the day when mothers will experience little difficulty in getting Danny or Freddie, Edna or Dorothy out of their little beds. Of course there is a reason for this. Early this morning the three trains bearing the Carl Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus pulled into the railroad yards, and TODAY is CIRCUS DAY. Everyone knows that is a combination of July Fourth, Christmas, New Year's and a Birthday Young America.

Just as soon as the first section arrived in the city the work of detouring and unloading started and the tents were pitched on the circus grounds. There the big tops spread over twelve acres and the band will play the air and the scent of the "hot-dogs" will be in the air. Spangled folks, funny clowns, elephants, horses and everything are among us today.

Little Tommy, unless he visits the railroad yards or hurries to the circus grounds will get his first "peep" at the circus, when the street parade of more than a mile in length covers the downtown streets at 11 o'clock. Scores of pretty girls, performers from the Far East, standard acts from Europe and America, as well as hundreds of fine peacocking horses and prize-winning Belgian sires, will appear in the procession, in which it is claimed many "cuddles" of wild animals will be exhibited than ever before.

Two performances are scheduled, the afternoon at 2 o'clock and the night show at 8 p. m. The doors will open an hour earlier so that the patrons can inspect the wonderful Hagenbeck-Wallace show, which contains a specimen of every animal living today. The zoo is said to be worth close to a half million dollars.

Among the featured performers in the big show are the Orrin Davenport Troupe of Equestrians, the Australian Woodchoppers, the Canton Chinese, the trained wild animal numbers and the English fox hunt. A total of 200 performers, 100 wild animal acts, 100 domestic animals and fifty clowns participate in the program, which will be presented in three rings, a steel arena and on the hippodrome track.

—Dr. S. A. Reynolds and sister, Miss Maurice of Pen Hook, were in the city yesterday.

RICHMOND, Va., May 10.—The Richmond Light Infantry Blues are today celebrating the 136th anniversary of the mustering in of that command, and since that day it has been in continuous existence.

Mother! Give California Fig Syrup

Child's Best Laxative To Clean the Bowels

Even a sick child loves the "fruity" taste of California Fig Syrup. If the little stomach is upset, tongue coated, or if your child is cross, feverish, full of cold, or has colic, a teaspoonful will never fail to open the bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the constipation poison, sour bile and waste from the tender, little bowels and gives you a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers keep California Fig Syrup handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine California Fig Syrup which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California," or you may get an imitation fig syrup.

Stop Laxatives Which Only Aggravate Constipation

Nujol is a lubricant—not a medicine or laxative—so cannot gripe. When you are constipated, not enough of Nature's lubricating liquid is produced in the bowel to keep the food waste soft and moving. Doctors prescribe Nujol because it acts like this natural lubricant and thus secures regular bowel movements by Nature's own method—lubrication. Try it today.

SCOUT TROOP 3 BEATS TROOP 2

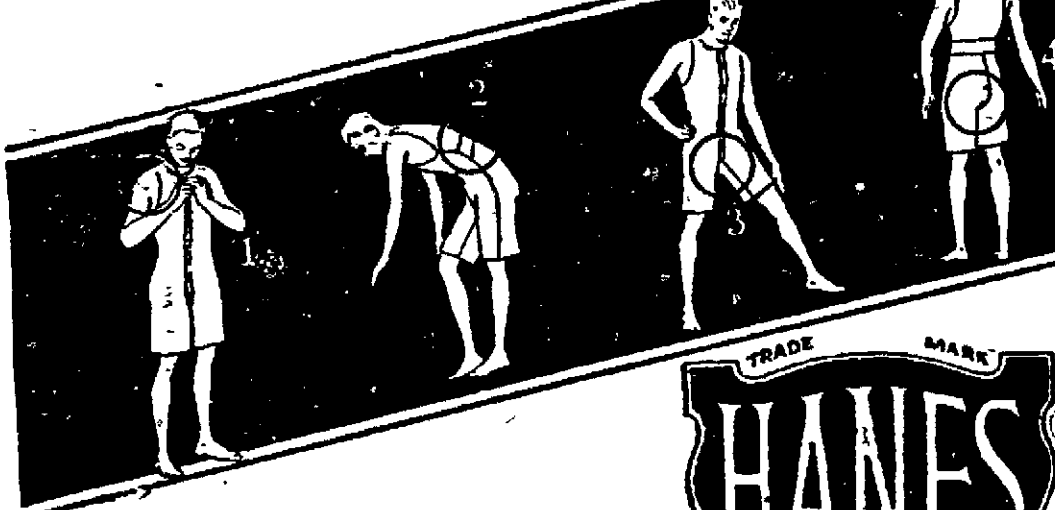

Troop 3 defeated Troop 2 today by the score of 8 to 4. The feature of the game was poor pitching by Giles, the supposed wonder hurler from the Wilson street boys' nine. Rucker relieved Giles in the sixth and held the Scouts, but Troop 2 was not able to score another tally.

The scouts of Troop 2 were not in usual form as they held the strong local high school team on Friday by the score of 3 to 1. Rucker for the Troop 2 team pitched a stellar game after relieving Giles.

Mrs. J. E. B. Stuart Died Yesterday In Norfolk, Va. (By The Associated Press)

NORFOLK, Va., May 10.—Mrs. Flora Stuart, widow of the renowned Confederate cavalryman, General J. E. B. Stuart and daughter of Major General Philip S. George Cooke, of the Union forces, died here late today at the home of her son-in-law, R. Page Waller. She was 58 years old.

While out walking Sunday, Mrs. Stuart fell, injuring her head. Complications developed and her condition grew steadily worse.

Mrs. Stuart had looked back on nearly three score years of widowhood. The glory of her husband, the plumed cavalier of the Confederacy, and marked today as the greatest leader of cavalry America has ever produced, has gained each year of her life.

She had been his wife scarcely ten years when her dashing soldier-husband was killed in battle. Romance has been woven around the courtship of the great Confederate cavalryman.

Thomas Dixon's "The Man in Gray," an historical novel of the civil war in which the glory of General Stuart and the heroism of his beautiful young wife are portrayed in striking phrases.

Major General Cooke, then a colonel, was in command of Fort Riley, when the territory of Kansas was opened. Lieutenant J. E. B. Stuart was in the regiment of Colonel E. V. Sumner, commanding Fort Leavenworth.

One day news was spread to Fort Leavenworth that the prettiest girl in Kansas had come to Fort Riley from Virginia. Flora Cooke had dashed across the country from Harpers Ferry to visit her father.

Lieutenant Stuart contrived to be sent as a messenger to Colonel Cooke, and there he met her. The next day he returned to his post and got a brief leave of absence to visit her for three

Do you know Baseball?
by Billy Evans

Five lengths of drainage pipe are left on the fairway by one of the workmen engaged in making some repairs. A player's second shot so lodges in one of the drainage pipes that there is absolutely no chance to play it. What are the rights of the player in such a situation?

The drainage pipes, which through the carelessness of the workmen have been permitted to remain on the fairway, are considered unplayable. There is no reason why the player should suffer a penalty because of such a condition. The player has the right to lift such ball and drop it with-out penalty.

A large size worm is on the putting green on a direct line between the player's ball and the cup. The player feels that unless he removes the worm it will seriously interfere with the direction of his putt. Is a worm on the putting green regarded as loose impediment? Is there a penalty if the worm is removed by brushing it aside with the clubhead?

A worm on the putting green is regarded as loose impediment. The player has a perfect right to remove it, but must do so by picking it up. The player makes himself open to a penalty for brushing it aside with the clubhead.

Yesterday's answer:
If a train leaves California daily, and one leaves Chicago daily, each taking a little less than four days to complete the cross-continental trip, seven trains will be passed en route from Chicago to California. Suppose the train leaves Chicago on a Wednesday. It will first pass the train that left California the Sunday previous. It will arrive in California early Sunday morning, last passing the Saturday train.

PURNELL IS ACCUSED
(By The Associated Press)
ST. JOSEPH, Mich., May 10.—A Barker from the House of David Amusement Park today told the special grand jury investigating the cult that "King" Benjamin Purnell, sixty years old leader, made improper advances to her in Shiloh, the home of Purnell and his wife "Queen" Mary, last July.

The witness was Mrs. Levina Johnson Hegner, aged 20, who fled the colony two weeks ago and was discovered working in a hotel. Special precautions were taken to guard her when she left the grand jury room.
